

Giving back.

At Briar Chapel, we make a point to get involved.
To join hands, embrace big visions, believe in things around the bend.

Investing in Briar Chapel is something you can feel good about. We're deep-down committed to forging long-standing relationships with our neighbors and investing in the greater community in which we live and work.

Planting roots.

Chatham County is home to Schools of Distinction, top SAT scores, “Teacher of the Year” awards and leading rankings from US News & World Report and The Washington Post. Two of these schools, Margaret B. Pollard Middle School and Woods Charter School, are on-site at Briar Chapel – an easy walk from your front door.

Home to some of the country's finest universities, the Triangle has a long-standing tradition of academic excellence, such as the University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill (located just seven miles away), Duke University and North Carolina State University. Briar Chapel students are strongly positioned to pursue higher education with these prestigious institutions.
